WILD LANDS

For Sale by

Texas Investment Co.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS.

In offering the following briefly described lands for sale we desire to inform you that the prices are given subject to change without notice. To any one unacquainted with the rapid development of this state, this may seem unfair. But Texas is so enormous that lands are frequently hundreds of miles from where they are sold, and many of our customers find that, unknown to them, their lands have grown to be worth more than the prices for which they have offered them. In cases like this it is simple justice that owners should increase the price. The safeguard the INVESTMENT COMPANY offers to the buyer, to protect him from being taken advantage of, is to offer the property, offering it for sale, at "any price"; and if a customer asks us what we consider property worth we will take pleasure in telling him.

In making inquiry about lands advertised always designate them by the number or name.
